

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

1 A filter assembly for a fryer system includes wall elements around the perimeter of the 2 filter, such wall elements allowing the accumulation of a quantity of particulates filtered
3 from the cooking oil. Passageways provided at the base of the wall elements and drain 4 openings between individual wall segments allow draining of cooking oil from the filter 5 surface as the filter assembly is removed from the cooking oil.